

Aircraft Painter

Thrust Flight's Maintenance Department ("Thrust Avionics") is one of the most elite aviation mechanical shops in the industry. Being one of the few Dynon Certified Dealers in the country, we offer the opportunity to work on a variety of aircraft from all over the world. We are seeking out a skilled and experienced Painter to assist our maintenance department by ensuring the overall aesthetic quality of our aircraft meets company expectations. This employee will oversee all aspects of the painting process from start to finish. This person must have a keen eye for detail. Thrust Flight has seen steady and consistent growth over the past few years, and every position we hire has multiple opportunities for promotion and growth within the company.

Responsibilities and requirements:

- Surface Preparation
- Ability to work in extreme weather conditions
- Detailed Masking
- Must have excellent layout skills
- Equipment Set Up and Maintenance
- Knowledge of paint type in relation to material
- Ability to match paint
- Self-motivated
- Knowledge of single stage painting
- Strong communication skills.
- High standard of integrity and professionalism is required at all times.
- Basic tools required
- An ability to lift 50 lbs